

Attention of the beneficiary,

This e-mail comes directly from the Anti-Fraud Committee Team of the Office of the African Union (AU) of the Republic of Togo in cooperation with the United Nations (UN) Duty Station Lome-Togo, Class P-4 Post-AF Number / RP/RDBCPN/SHS /0001.in connection with the large-scale collection (arrests) of Internet fraudsters. Due to the high level of complaints we receive from the United Nations (UN) at the level of fraudsters/fraudsters with African nationalities. All ISPs have seen an increase in email traffic from Africa to other continents.

Three hundred and six (306) fraudsters have been arrested so far in this raid and this raid is still ongoing. We have recovered a total of $857 million in both cash and assets confirmed to have originated with his victims. We found hundreds of thousands of victims' email addresses from their directories. We will contact you during this time.

We have made several attempts to contact you without success, so we are sending you this final reminder that the United Nations Compensation Commission will have no choice but to write off your $750,000.00 compensation money and mark it. as it is not required, so please reply to this letter immediately to clarify your position on this matter before it is too late, act quickly and follow the instructions for your own good. More details will be available when you contact United Bank of Africa Lome, Togo
