

Urgent Business Proposal

Dear Sir/Madam,

I am writing in hopes of finding the appropriate person who handles your day to day decisions. If it makes sense to talk, let me know how your calendar looks. I'm Dr. Paul Weston, I work with the MSF USA - Doctors without Borders (Is an international humanitarian-aid non-governmental organization (NGO) and Nobel Peace Prize laureate, best known for its projects in war-torn regions and developing countries facing endemic diseases). I was among the doctors assigned by the MSF for humanitarian-aid in Syria, Afghanistan and Libya.

I have a business deal to discuss with you which will be beneficial to us and will lead us into partnership investment in your country, like in real estate, building hospital and as well set up a good NGO for children development. I have in my possession the sum of $12.7 million USD Which I made here in the middle east, It is an oil money, and I deposited this money with the red cross as a consignment which contains personal effect.

My sincere intention in writing you is to gain your kind permission and acceptance to assist me secure this money on my behalf in your position for establishment of investment with you in your city. I cannot handle the business myself because of the nature of my job. For your permission and acceptance, you are entitled to 30% commission of the total amount if you have accepted to do this transaction with me honestly.

If you are the appropriate person to speak with, please kindly reply back to me and I will send over the details, if you are not the appropriate person, who do you recommend I talk to?
